25X1

From 2 to 13 November 1952, the Flak Kaserne between Geusaner Strasse and Rhein Strasse in Herseburg was occupied by 2,000 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets with artillery insignia, including some with AT artillery insignia and about 10 uniformed women wearing red-bordered black epaulets. Several soldiers wearing black-bordered black epaulets were also seen. On 2 November, about 100 soldiers dug trenches, presumably slit trenches, between the western quarters and the barracks fence. Except for occasional physical exercise, no regular training activity was noticed. There was very little activity in the billeting area after 6 November. Motor vehicles seen in traffic from and to the barracks installation
